

"There must be an international copyright arrangement. England has done her part, and I am confident the time is not far distant when America will do hers. It becomes the character of a great country, firstly, because it is justice; secondly, because without it you never can have, and keep, a literature of your own."—CHARLES DICKENS (from a Speech).

BOSTON, Apr 14 1887.

Dear Madam

Thanks for yours
with addg. material wh
we will make use of.

Perhaps the character of "Buttons Pan" will cause an ad. of it in the Methodist Traders to do good. We are willing to try it.

Truly Yours
