GEORGE L. LEWIS. ADELBERT MOOT.

My dear Tougers,

Your letter to young Johnson does credit to your head and judgment, & Johnson's letter is unusually intelligent, & should his references and further acquaintance bear it out I will fight it out on that line and doubt not I shall win, He has not yet come, & we have about twenty applications and when you remember we do not run a low priced, slip shod, one year school we feel encouraged &

We take the Literary World: think much of it; read its notice of Butters Inc, and concur & I hope "89" progresses, Remember me to your household - Yr friend, Adalbert Moot
