Dear Mrs Dargue,

I read "Buttons Inn" with great pleasure, and inclose notice - which should have been sent before, but I have been very busy and not half well. I will send copy to North State. This is from the News Observer.

By the way - would it not be well to send Mr Ash a copy? I had a notion to give him mine, he published it so cheerfully, but I had written my name in it & did not want to spare it. I wish you would do so -

I don't know whether this is in good form - I have over-tired it before. Please accept our thanks for your kind remembrance with such pleasant reading. All well & all send love -

Truly Yours,
A. W. Shaffer
