Hon. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir: Your telegram was received. The Star Lyceum Bureau also sent me your letter. You are at present booked with us for Jan. 19th, 1888. We have concluded, however, that, in order to avoid having the lectures in our course crowded so closely together, we would like to put one of them at a later date. The lecturer who was booked for Jan. 12th can take Jan. 24th, if you can take Jan. 12 or Jan. 10 (Thursday or Tuesday.) If neither of these dates suits you, how will Jan. 24 or 26th do for you? If it is not possible for you to change to any one of the four dates mentioned (or to Jan. 23^d?), we will of course retain you for Jan. 19th. Please let me hear from you by return mail. I write to you directly that I may receive a more prompt reply.

We shall probably want your lecture entitled
"Yours & Mine; or, Socialism and its Allies", unless you prefer to give some other.

You misinterpreted our inquiry for a changed wording of the title "The Christian Citizen". We thought that more of the Christians as well as of "the boys" might be induced to listen to such a theme, if they didn't suspect beforehand that they were going to be "lectured."

Very respectfully yours,
Roland H. Guss
