In reply to yours of _____

My Dear Sir:- I have this day written Supt. Davis at Scranton stating that you are available for that City for Dec. 19th, 1887 at $75 and "Locals". I do not know how he made the mistake as I have had some correspondence with him and recently engaged Willits for Dec. 22nd and he must have certainly expected to get you cheaper from S. L. B. as I had quoted rates as above. I also wrote to Welsboro last week as soon as I received your letter. I presume that it was impossible for them to make the change desired as they have made no reply as yet.

Yours Truly,

M. L. McQuown
