My dear Judge:-

I think well of your suggestions to the attorneys in New York, with one exception. As they will be a defunct corporation in effect, there can be no objection to their pleading release by the contract of July 2, 1834, and we will thus get the advantage of that plea. Their pleading this release in no way affects us, or our answers, but raises the issue where we are bound to get the benefit of it, because we are parties to the suit.

I have forwarded copies of the amended answers to Demming and Logan, and suggested that they plead this release.

I am very busy, and hope this will find you well and your business matters prosperous.

Hastily your friend,

To

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
