

On a lecture tour,
Livingston, Montana,
near Yellowstone Park,
Oct. 22, 1890

Dear Sir,

Some weeks
since I had the honor to receive a note from yourself that encourages me to renew my application to you in regard to the editorship of one of the departments of Outlook.

This periodical will pay you $100. for two articles on the leading issues of politics in 1891. The editors prefer discussion of what other publications usually skip or evade. The Race Problem, the Federal Election Bill are the topics we suggest to you. The articles need be only from 10 to 15 pages in length. We wish to put your name where Prof. James now stands on our title page & this is the whole service we require of an associate editor - two articles a year.

If you can favor us, please telegraph
Sunday Pub. Co.
278, Beacon St,
Boston, Mass.,
at once.

Yours very truly,

Joseph Cook
