My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

Excuse my delay in answering your letter. I am very sorry you are troubled with such matters. Enclosed find the statement you desire. I trust it will accomplish your object. Believe me, these unkindly winds will soon cease to blow. Let me say again, it is always darkest just before day.

With well wishes to your husband, your daughter, your sister, yourself and family,

Sincerely your friend,

To
Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.
