

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 29, 1890.

E. K. Tourgee, Esq.,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear sir:

Yours of 20th received and we herewith accept your offer of Judge Tourgee for December 2, '90, at $75, and "locals", with the stipulation that you are to furnish us ~~with~~ a liberal supply of whatever lithographs or circulars you may have. You doubtless have something of the kind that you will be willing to send us. We could not use the 9th on account of another lecture here, so will take the 2. Please send advertising at once.

Yours truly,

For the Archæan Union
of Beloit College,

C. Osborne
Chm. Lecture Com.

Please send us a list of Judge Tourgee's present subjects.
