

new — it is only a new fringe of ~~an old thought~~ ideas as old as God and as holy.

I think it opens the way, however, for the reconciliation of christian thought with social impulse and shows the path which men and men — individuals and society ~~will~~ will recognize as the one <sup>to</sup> ~~way~~ <sup>way</sup> social peace. It astonishes me as I review it — and more than all else your approval gratifies and encourages me.

I am still sharpening up the ~~book~~ <sup>letter and</sup> — for I want it to be like a bee whose sting is not only in his Tail but is closely linked with his Honey-bag also. I have suggested a term you know, if this thing is a success never to write another. I will write the last chapter tomorrow and it will be for a while very well ~~than~~ <sup>to</sup> me you read before. To my mind it just speaks the "chattering" that is, I mean that it strikes the whole story and reveals all the things before it with her-evidence life.

One thing we have left forgotten, I think and that is our Abstract sheet to go out with your editorial.
I think you must have me with this — it will pay.

Perhaps you make a whole of it. I am fully tired of the word and my relations might look producers. I mean to ~~do~~ <sup>do</sup> ~~not~~ <sup>not</sup> ~~write~~ <sup>write</sup> a single not hit what we are to take with the first time reader.
