Dear Mrs. Tompae,

I owe you an apology for not answering your letter sooner, but the election was on hand & I neglected to write you; however the parties are all right and are ready to come when you get ready for them, when it suits you send the check and I will ship them by the first "boat." Tell the judge I would like to have his opinion as to the "cause & effect" of the late election.

I haven't the book you spoke of would like very much to have,

Yours Truly
J. D. White
