Dear Madam
Your Postal

Card came to hand in answer, in which you say the grapes
sent your daughter were utterly ruined &c &c Now we will state a few facts, viz. 1st The grapes were the best we had, 2<sup>d</sup> They were in good condition when they left here, 3<sup>d</sup> They were from our firm your daughter (as you say) to the contrary

Notwithstanding. And we would suggest that if you have any more intimations of that nature that it would be in better taste to say the least if you would put what you have to say in a sealed envelope.

Enclosed please find 40¢ in postage stamps which is all we need from you less postage and baskets.
our turn and grapes nothing
Very Respectfully
