

Dear Sir:

As I have always stated to you, I have no objection to <sup>appearing to conclude</sup> ~~concluding~~ the examination whenever the default is ~~announced~~ struck out, ~~and~~ according to our stipulation.

As, however, I have long been unable to travel without an attendant and much of the time even with one, I cannot say with certainty that I would be able to come on the 16th. So far as I can now assume, however, that day will suit me as well as any other. If unable to do so I will let you know as early as I am able to do so.

Yours truly,
