

Mr J. Brown:

Dear Sir:

I presume you are right in your inference and I do not want to make any difficulty.
I have today written Fleisher that if ~~he~~ he complies by March 1st I will ~~not~~ satisfy you in regard to the paper-bush. If he does ~~not~~ I will write you at once: if he does not & the place will still remain in your control. I gave him permission to go upon it for a specific purpose and none other. If you work the bush you can see fallen wood for it. You need not have any fear ~~that~~ of any purpose to deprive you of anything you are entitled to ~~it~~ by any fair construction of our contract.
Yours -
