

Darlingtons have only little over one dress pattern, so will reserve it until

Dear Mrs. Lougee

Your letter received in good time I had ~~had~~ your selection of silk reserved for you until I hear from you again They are not selling that style of silk at all to combine with plain You did not state if you wanted any trimming on the skirt, but as you want it for dressed up occasions it would be prettiest with some on. I could get you up a very pretty dress for about eighty dollars that would be allowing you fifteen dollars for trimming and buttons have several pretty patterns of blk. passamentries with only a little let in which would be a great improvement to the dress at five dollars a yd and about two and a half inches wide others wide at six, seven, or eight according to how much trimming you want on the dress. Let me hear from you as soon as possible just what you want. Would you like the back all in one or separate. Yours truly C. Wilson
