Judge A. W. Tourgei,
Mayville, N. Y.

My dear Sir: -

Your favor of 5th inst. received. You are correct, it is the House that our society simulates. We find the greatest lack among our members is a knowledge of parliamentary rules. Most of them are woefully ignorant of them & consequently must learn the very first thing. I did forget, for the moment that our term "congressman" was a misnomer.

I have written Mr. Kelly this morning asking him for a copy of the Election Bill & of your remarks upon it.

It is a source of great regret to me that the Senate laid aside the Bill that the House past and took up, instead a silver Bill, I can't tell what the end of it all will be.

Can you, Judge Tourgee?
When is the negro to have the rights of a citizen? I am grateful to you for your courtesy in informing me where I could obtain a copy of the Bill.
With best wishes, I remain,

Very Truly Yours,

Wm. G. Richards.
