Dear Mr. Vaugée.

When I sent you a hasty acknowledgment of the receipt of "Liberale Erntem" which I felt sure was from you, although I had spent some little time looking it over, reading snatches here and there, I did not discover until recently your kindly written note on the fly leaf which vastly multiplies the value of the gift in my eyes. I assure you, so again thanking you for the same, assuring you that it will be kept and treasured.

I remain

Yours truly
H. S. Harrison
