

The Commonwealth Magazine.
Editorial Department.

Jan. 16th / 9.

Dear Madam:

As I wrote a day or two ago the story by Judge Tounge has gone to an artist to illustrate. When it returns I can easily give you the desired information.
In the matter of bread prices etc, I fancied that you meant that Miss Tounge would like to try some drawings to be used at any time in the magazine, and therefore said that we should be glad to see some to judge of the work if she desired to submit some for ~~her~~ examination.

You can easily see that it is a matter in which we are obliged to reserve a decision until after examination of the work, and you will therefore

Excuse my seeming uncertainty as to the desirability of the drawings.

Excuse me apologise again to you for my non appearance at the Everett House, and believe me, Dear Madam,

Your sincerely

J. H. Tracy

To Mr. Touze.
