

5242

OFFICE OF THE NEW YORK LEDGER,

P. O. BOX 3268.

COR. SPRUE & WILLIAM STS.

New York,

Jan. 20. 1891

(Dictated by R. E. B. )

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,

1417 16 St.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Madam:

We have received the Prologue, read it, and think it will make a very satisfactory way to open the story. It will pique curiosity much more than the long installment Judge Tourgée first wrote, and because it does not occupy the whole installment, it will give the reader an opportunity ~~xxxxxxx~~ to get well advanced in the narrative by reading the first installment.

Very truly yours,

Robert B. Cunningham.