Editorial Department.

Dear Madam!

I have to apologise
for not calling on you earlier.
Mr Walker wished me to call upon you in his place, and as your letter stated you were to be here during this week, I arranged to be at the Everett House on Thursday. Owing to press of business it was difficult to come earlier. I trust you will pardon this and will understand my position in the matter.

Can you not send us the picture you refer to? We have an artist who is illustrating the story but very likely this could be used as well. It is very kind of you to suggest your daughter as a possible illustrator in design work. I should have liked to have seen some of her work; and perhaps even now if she cares to send in some of her work it may be available.

It is however impossible to make any decision until the ~~manuscript~~ drawing has been examined.

Very sincerely yours.

J. H. Sears.
