GEORGE LEWIS ABELBERT MOOT.
L. L. LEWIS JR.

Feb. 4, 1891.

My dear Judge:-

You know Barlow finally served the order made at Special Term by Justice Lewis denying our motion to set aside his proceedings, and we took an appeal from it the same day. Since then, nothing has been done by either party. Barlow may bring the matter up the last of March at the General Term in Rochester, although he is not required to give notice that he intends to do so until shortly before the beginning of the Term. Some time, at your convenience, let me know your desire in the matter; also how the world uses you.

With best wishes to your family and yourself, and hoping that we may see you soon,

Sincerely yours,

To

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
