

THE ADVERTISER
BUNNELL & OBERDORF
DANVILLE, N. Y.

6 Feb 1891

Dear Mr. Bourgee

I send you a copy of Advertiser containing notice of Elwood Eastman.
I shall follow this up by quotations from the work of sound thinkers, doctrines I have been looking in the Tribune & other newspapers for such notices of the work as it deserves, but have seen nothing. Have I missed them, ^{or} are these newspapers missing a rare opportunity to enforce & reinforce the doctrine of right dealing?

I have the pleasure of making a note of the progress of your talented daughter, & shall hope to note her advancements as the years go by. I wish that your family lived within neighborly distance I should so enjoy an opportunity to get a little inspiration now & then.

With kind regards to all I am as always

Sincerely for true

A. A. Russell
