

J. B. Lippincott Company,
Publishers and Booksellers.

Philadelphia, Feb 10 1891

Mrs. Emma K. Tawney's

Dear Madam:

We are in receipt of your favor of the 6th inst, and in reply would state that we have on hand
of "With Gauge & Swallow" 296 copies in sheets and 71 " bound

The latter we prefer to retain, but are willing to close out the plates and unbound stocks to you for $330.<sup>00</sup> which is considerably less than cost.

Trusting that this proposition will be acceptable
we beg to remain

Yours truly
J. B. Lippincott Co
J. B.