C. P. SKINNER, VICE PRESIDENT

J. A. SKINNER, CASHIER

The National Bank of Westfield

Westfield, N.Y. Feby. 10th. 1891,

Mrs Emma K. Tourgee
Dear Mrs Tourgee:--

Yours of the 9th. inst. is received relative to balance due on account of "Letters to a King, and "Guage & Swallow."

A note was given for the amount advanced on "Letters to a King," and the earlier payments thereon were endorsed by us on the note; the balance due on the note ~~was~~ after such endorsement had been made was charged on our books to "Letters to a King", and the note cancelled. I will instruct Mr. Cipperly to look up the note and return it to you. No note was given for "Guage & Swallow," but I sent the Judge a check for $100 and charged the amount directly to that account on our books. I hope this explanation will make the matter clear to you.

I am glad to know that the Judge feels able to resume travel and lecturing, and hope the experiment will not be too great a strain upon him.

Sincerely Yours,
