Dear Mrs. Lurgie:-

I completed Miss Lurgie's picture or tea gown yesterday for her to wear in the evening. She looked lovely in it, and the evening dress will be finished today all but the feathers which there was some little misunderstanding about, but that will be sent next Wednesday. I ordered the narrow band at 3.25 per band and it required three bands. I wanted also to ask you approval as to two bunches of tips to really complete the dress shall I order them?

I have enough silk left to make a highnecked waist with the exception of 1 yd. which I have sent for while I could match it. Do you not think I had better make it up while I am on Miss Lurgies work.
She is quite in love with the idea of having the two waists to change and having the other waist trimmed with black velvet. Enclosed find bill as requested, I trust you will not think I have overcharged for making the gown as there was much more work on it than I expected but it is really beautiful. Awaiting your reply before ordering the tips & velvet I remain

Yours very respic

C. K. Boyd.
