

13 Feb. 1891

Dear Mr. Bourgee

You have my sincere thanks for a copy of your daughter's photograph.
The face is a most interesting study. I do not wonder you are proud of her.
I am very proud of the picture.

I sent you another copy of The Advertiser containing notice of ball.
I shall be glad at any time to send you several copies whenever there is a notice in if you have any use for them.

I am exceedingly sorry to know that the Judge is not feeling well & carries too many of the world's burdens on his shoulders & too many of its sorrows in his heart.
He takes life too seriously.
I shall have to get him in our Panatorium if he does not come around right soon. My kind regards to the daughter when you write her. With renewed thanks for your many favors, I am as always sincerely yours

A. D. Bunnell