

6 HOTEL WESTLAND, Avenue

BACK BAY, BOSTON.

Feb. 13. 1891

Dear Madam,

As I see your name to the copyright of Judge Tourjee's beautiful book "Mervale Eastman" I address this note to you. I should greatly desire to have a letter from Judge Tourjee himself, if he is alive and well.

I would be glad to be informed if there is a Christian Socialist Society formed and working in N. Y. or elsewhere. and how it is succeeding?

Though an Episcopal Church man, I feel hearty sympathy with the plan proposed in the work, believing deep to be in this, as in all things, far better than words in religion.

I send you a paper for which I am a frequent writer,
-unpaid- except by interchange of friendly feelings and offices with the Editor. I think of writing two or three articles on this subject, and shall refer to your husband's work.

I am, Madam,

Yours obediently,

E. K. Humphreys Lay Delegate of Church of The Good Shepherd
Boston
