Judge A. W. Tourgee

My dear Sir:-

The enclosed clipping I clipped from the InterOcean of Monday. I simply desire to call your attention to it, hoping that you will notice it in your notes when convenient, tell us something of the fifth amendment. The writer of the article must be an ex-confederate.

Your letter of 14th inst. at hand, I will study "an appeal to Caesar" and profit thereby as much as possible. Am glad to learn that your health is improving rather than the reverse. With kindest regards I remain

Respy. Yours

Wm. A. Richards.
