

St. Louis -

Feb. 19 - 1891.

Dear Judge Furgie,

I have just finished reading "Merrill Eastman", and, although I am a stranger, I thought I would write and tell you how very much pleased I am with it.

When I first commenced it, I took it for granted that he was an Episcopal minister, but further on he was referred to as the "pastor", and the deacons were spoken of - Then the description of Ezekiel Ironley made me think that he was a Presbyterian. Later on I thought he must be a Methodist. Still I am by no means certain -

Books on Socialism are of interest to a great many people - and even to those who are not interested in that all important subject, the story of "Merrale Eastman" is one in which the interest is kept up all through the story.

If it is not asking too much, will you please send me your autograph as I have quite a number of them, and admire your writings so much that I should like to have yours.

I hope to have the pleasure of reading more books of yours on that subject as I trust "Miracle Eastman" will not be the last.

Sincerely
Carolyn Scott.
