NEW YORK,

Sept 20 1891

My dear Judge

I wish send you proof of new case tomorrow or Monday.
I have been sick & do not need. Mine — must be symone delay in many things.

About Mr. Elyne, I hear nothing from him; & whether he is away or what, I don't know. But it settles the question for Feb. I must go ahead as my injured liver & have "The Am. Newspaper."

Now let me put the done for the church meeting — which, I presume of Good Friday's evening on the 4th of Feb, must come on the 3rd Friday — the 19th of the month. Eh?
I will start with you for a base, & then set it — Elyne or some one else. How do you suspect? We have had an early "Looby Backwood", I have had Key Stone in propria persona (or pretty near a year too.)

I can't write more but am a thousand times obliged for your prompt help. Let me hear about March 19th.

Yours truly
