

My dear Sir:

Mr. Henderson

Your City Editor some little time ago, asked me to send him an article upon the ~~manners~~ state publication of school books, which I did.

Since that time, I have heard nothing from him and do not know that the same was published or even received by him.

As I feel very confident ~~that~~ ^{and} ~~am~~ ^{am} ~~sure~~ ^{sure} that only death, serious illness or the misfortune of being suddenly "faded" could ever ~~imagine~~ ^{imagine} ~~me~~ ^{me} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~such~~ ^{such} ~~a~~ ^a ~~case~~ ^{case} of your profession to be guilty of such marked discourtesy, I write to ask you ^{rather than to have to write} if such article was published ^{that you will} send me one or more copies of the issue containing the same, if not too great an inconvenience.

Sincerely yours

Ed. Dombick
