OFFICE OF

THE DETROIT PLAINDEALER

TRIBUNE BUILDING

P. O. Box 92.

Detroit, March 7 1891.

Mr. A. W. Toussaint
Magnificently my dear Sir -

I received your kind note of the 24th of Feb. and while I fully appreciated your physical inability to accept any great number of the many such courtesies you are extended, I was in hopes that you would honor us with your presence for a short time. Your polite explanation is decidedly complimentary to me and I have filed it away.

I send you by this mail five (5) copies of the last issue of The Plaindealer and sincerely trust the cut may be entitiled to a place top of column next to reading matter. Yours truly Robt. Pelham.
