Dear Judge.

I regretted very much that our Republican State Convention called me to Jackson early the morning after the banquet, so that I was unable to again see you - I wanted a little time for visiting, for I had anticipated your trip here with a great deal of pleasure - Let me assure you that our Board, the Michigan Club and myself appreciated very fully your presence on that occasion, and the eloquent address made by you, was enjoyed by all - As you no doubt know, it is our custom to publish in full, report of these meetings. In a few days I will have the stenographic notes, and will send them to you, which you no doubt would like to look over before publication. Kindly advise me of your expenses incurred in your trip here and return, which I shall take pleasure in meeting -

I hope at an early date, you can make us a visit - I should like more than anything else, to have you meet Senator Palmer in his own home, and I know he would be more than pleased to meet you, because I think you would be congenial to each other - The Senator was unavoidably absent from the City at the time of the banquet - Try and arrange to visit us during the Spring or Summer, and I know the Senator would be glad to entertain you at his Log Cabin, and I am sure you would find great pleasure there -

With kindest regards

Remain

Very truly Yours.
