Mrs. Emma K. Tourgée,

Maysville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:

There has just come up a possibility whereby we may be able to dispose of the serial rights of "A Son of Old Harry" in England in connection with other LEDGER matter, provided you will allow to us anything that we can get for the serial rights, ~~the~~ the advantage of the publication in England of the novel in serial form will be considerable to Judge Tourgée by making him still further known to the English public and keeping his name before them. We believe that you have already abandoned the idea of publishing the serial abroad, but we wish to be sure before going ahead.

With kindest regards to Judge Tourgée, we remain,

Very truly yours,

Robert B. Jones
