

FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT,
PUBLISHERS,
No. 30, Lafayette Place.

Forthcoming 1911.
Catholic Club.

NEW YORK, March 1891

Dear Judge

Felix Adler was about to start off on a journey, and he couldn't come to us, despite his expressions of "otherwise" delight.

I have made another go for Father & Agnes; failing him, I shall go for Thomas D. Shearman, who is a brainy & clear cut a thinker & talks as you are likely to expect in a summer day.

What would be your line of dissertation — "Mr. Val Eastman" or his doctrines, or some other phase? It will help me to know, if only a title for the talk.

Yours,
R.A.