

FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT, PUBLISHERS,
No. 30, Lafayette Place.

NEW YORK,

March 1881

Dear John

Here are some of the amended circulars take you like 'em. —

I expected to recommend that we should speak first (at the outlook) 40 minutes; you sh^d follow 50 minutes; he sh^d conclude 10 or 15 min.
That will give each an opportunity to say his emphatic points & any points made by the other that he don't agree with, & will help enlive & break up the solid discussion for the audience — which of course is largely composed of women & young people.

They'll take good sense & argument well; but they like it lightened & sweetened, as most folks do! Does that answer out you?

He says his topic will be "Practicable Social Reform."

Truly

J. R. M.