Dear Sir: I have just completed the reading of your latest work, - "Muroak Eastman" - and beg to thank you for the inspiration to nobler action which I have gathered from its heroic story. No one reading the work can fail to be benefited. Your Muroak is about my age, and his teaching is much in sympathy with my belief and aim, that I am constrained to ask you to what church you belong. I trust you will not consider this impertinence on my part, but I have reason to think you and I are members of the same body.

Enclosed you will find stamped envelope for reply. Any thought you may see fit to add on the suggestion you had to write the book will be thankfully appreciated.

Believe me Yours in Sincerity,

Ernest C. McKeough.
