PUBLISHERS,
No. 30, Lafayette Place.

NEW YORK, Feb 19 1891

My dear Mr. Fonger

Your line from Italy will arrive safely. You come too? So much the better I only wish that we were in our own home this winter, then I should take the advantage of telegraphy to disportance to join you tomorrow instead of waiting till Saturday, when you say the camp is so it is, I owe the fortune of being able to have you overnight in our pleasant board; home to the misfortune of Mr. Horand's being away with my daughter Annie in Springfield. Were it not for that, I should have had to arrange for your entertainment with some

Other of our Committee. Mr Shearman goes to Dr. Bradford's.

Now don't bother to come down to the office (unless you want to - You & the Judge of course we should be glad to see you). The main point is that you should go within up to Avenue 18th St (1 block) or out 17th St Broadway & then take the Blue Car to Christopher St. Ferry (allowing say a good half hour to do it in) so as to be at the ferry by 4.15 pm. The fare for recreation boat to Matelan & back is 50¢. I will try to be there in time for the 4.15 boat; the 4.20 is the "Main boat." But anyhow, do you go on over & take the 12th Car from the front end of the Matelan Trip, or back to in del de la N. depot in Hoboken. I'll find you out. inculcom. R. Thomas
