Dear Mr. Sawyer

Yours of the 19th recd. I am delighted with your subject & I would a little more the century new you mention. It doesn't seem gracious to give a gratuity too far, but no conversation is arranged for with the sole intent of doing good to others, & the exercise of your ability & use in this matter very anxious to hear you with us So please try your best to help us.
Not as an usual. You are hardly aware I can't get over my early education that when writing to another on business specially from work, that is the thing to do.
Yours truly
Wm. W. Sawyer
