Dear Judge Torgue;

Isn't we to see any of you this Spring? From your letter - and afterwards some mail for me, sent to our address led us to hope we should soon see you, but the weeks go by and no more "signs" of your coming.

I received a letter from Mrs. Warner a few days ago in which she spoke of desiring to meet-tumbling upon Mrs. Morrison is the uncertainty of Mrs. Foy's whereabouts, for if an child with such a mother, I wish you to convey to her and back, as well as Miss Warner, a copy of our "Constitution" to visit. As this is and me the same. This is done, while here.

I do need no more, we hope most of all to see you with them.

With much love from all

Dr. all. Yours sincerely
Katharine Weston

Mrs. Foy is in Philadelphia this spring and if so might come on to Washington - for a few days. This would be I think it would be pleasant for all to come at the same time. I would do my best to make you comfortable and with my present funds we would have a jolly time. I had several friends with me at the receipt of her letter and now fear she has left Baltimore so cannot urge her to come to our house if she visits.
W. Now my regards for
