

Superintendent's Office, BAY VIEW ASSEMBLY and
SUMMER UNIVERSITY

JOHN M. HALL.

Stent. Mich., April 6th, 1891.

Mr. Albion W. Fournier,

Dear Sir,

Last summer a Press Club was organized by about fifty writers, at Bay View and this year its work takes the form of a school for writers with one daily lecture or talk. It is the desire of the Press Club to have a place in the general program. Can you not visit Bay View, deliver the annual address, and on what conditions? Unless you have visited the famous MacRivans and summer resort region of Northern Michigan, I am sure you would greatly enjoy the trip, which can be, if desired, made entirely by a lake tour from Buffalo or Cleveland.

The enclosed Assembly Record will acquaint you with Bay View and our plans.

Very truly,

John W. Keane.
