

A POINTER.

It is said that the Church is the Light of the world. Then of course we demand the promulgators of between 666 and a thousand sects to inform us which is the only true one. They being antagonistic to each other can not at the same time all be of God. My leaflet entitled "The Comparisons" has not been answered by their sectarian theologians and unless they can refute it they stand guilty before God's Law.

As a defender of Christ's doctrine here among the world's conflicting religions we stand between them and Christ's kingdom interceding for said peaceable kingdom as does our Secretary of State in behalf of our civil government. Our Authority is our "Diploma" in the shape of the Spirit of Truth—THE COMFORTER "whom the world can not receive," the people following the Leaders of sectarian priestcrafts instead of said "Comforter." See our "Discipline"—St. John 14, Acts 20:28, and Matt. 24:31. The 1st Cor. 1:10-14 and Rom. 16:17-18 condemns sectarianism and Acts 20:28 shows that sectarian conference delegated authority is superseded by the Holy Ghost. So the issue stands thuswise: The HOLY GHOST vs. Theological Seminaries and Human disciplines. For if "Christ the hope of glory is formed in a regenerated crucified saint, what need is there of human prescribed rites or forms?"

The Spirit of Christ is an unerring Guide and a detector of all counterfeits, and His Spirit in us overcomers, Rev. 2:26-27-28 makes us all of one mind which is impossible among sectarian schismatics. Now I ask is it not evident if the Apostolic Religion had continued through the past eighteen centuries, instead of Roman Catholicism and sectarian priestcraftisms we would have Heaven established here on earth? Rev. 21:2-5 and Hab. 2-14. All external religious observances are a relic of pagan and Roman Catholicism.

So, then, there has not been a true prophet here on earth since Christ and His Apostles' day. There have of course been Reformers who came out of many erroneous teachings of the Bible, but there has been no real "Overcomers" until these last days, and these few are called by the World's "Theological preachers "cranks." But, dear blind children, you know it takes a very sound brave man to possess the stamina or qualification for a first class "crank." "No coward ever scaled the Mount of God." It is said of a true Messenger "that the Law of God is in his mouth." Ex. 13:9. Matt. 24:31—authority.
