Mr. A.W. Touquee
 Dear Sir: Some time ago (last summer I believe) we submitted to you from Chicago an accumulation of clippings for which we made no charge and you very graciously wrote that our service was so far superior to the service you had been receiving that as soon as you present subscription expired you would place an order with us. Finally you did place an order with us and at the end of a month or so ordered it discontinued without giving any explanation as to reason of dissatisfaction. At the time the order was very busy attending to the reorganization of our Company so let those matters accumulate. My typewriter & myself are busy catching up on these delayed matters and I now beg to ask for reconsideration of decision pending. Herewith I send a few sheets that have accumulated and with you would see how very
