

OFFICE OF

A. J. HARRIS,

--MANUFACTURING--

Druggist & Apothecary.

Essexville, Mich., April 25 1891

Albion W. Tourgee, Esq.

My dear Sir,

Your admirable writings anent the Colored Race in the Inter-Ocean, elicit my highest admiration, in these days of waning faith, and pandering to the opponents of the Republican party. Your views are correct, and honestly outspoken.

So on, my dear Sir, with the full assurance that you have thousands of unknown admirers, who follow the lead you indicate; and may God defend the right.

Yours Sincerely,
A. J. H.
