Mrs. A. W. Fougere
Madame,

In looking over the book matter, I find that since our last settlement, I have sold three Buttons In which entitles you to a credit of \$2.10 which amount I enclose The Paetous Prince and other books have not sold as yet, I presume it would be as well for you to take up the volumes of Paetous Prince, as I do not think they will sell here. Since I have used all my efforts to start them, If you will forward me as many as $\frac{1}{2}$ dozen of the book entitled "Mervale Eastman" I think I can sell them. Of course the terms would be the same as before. I have a customer, who wants one copy as early as the last of this week, and I trust you will send them over immediately & oblige

Yours Truly
