Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayville,

New Yrk.

Dear Sir:

We have two copies of the enclosed page No. 30.

Which one do you wish used in the LEDGER? Please return us the correct one, and oblige,

Yours truly,

Robert Bonner's Sons,

 "As soon as I can get Col. Sedley to name the day: the horse is in prime condition and I cannot wait."

"True: ~~it will be worth seeing, as death~~
 I suppose there will be a great crowd?" There was a thrill of regret in his voice. He had grown very fond of the big bay and so felt very keenly the fact that his profession would bar him from witnessing this crucial performance.

"On the contrary, it will be entirely private; each of us is to take our friend — no more!"

"Indeed."

"I was going to ask you to go with me," said Herbert with some hesitation.

"There will be no betting?" asked the driver cautiously.

"None: it is not deemed to create a record."

"I do not should not; it will be a rare treat."

"Thanks; I will let you know when it comes off."
