

FORDS HOWARD, & HULBERT, PUBLISHERS,
No. 80 Lafayette Place.

NEW YORK,

May 1891

Dear Mr. Foy

Yours of the 2^d is at hand with the Judge's decision as to "Eastman" & the paper Edition. All right.
We will push along on the $150 Edition while it will go; and when it settles down to the Creepy-Crawly stage we can see what's best to do or not to do.

I am glad you are going on the California trip & hope it will do you all good. If you dumf is along the grippe line, do force yourself to take it easy, & "delay" as purpose. There is some subtle poison in that influenza that robs the patient of strength, far beyond what the length of illness would seem to effect naturally.

We thank you, we are all well now and jogging along in the usual fashion.
We send kind remembrances & wishes for a delightful & invigorating trip.

Faithfully,
Yours,
R Howard
