

Angelica, Albany Co. N.Y.

Mar 5th 1891,

Albion W. Benson Esq.

My Kind Sir:—

Yours of the 29th ult. is before me. I arrived
from Washington D.C.
yesterday. I had been there since Mar 25th.

I have 1000 Copies of the book in my own right, beside a royalty; and will furnish them upon
order:—leatherette binding at

Cloth—~~1.50~~ 1.50

The paper & type are of the best quality.

I can send by mail - 3
copies in a package.

If I can ^{send} 20, or more in package, I can send
by express cheaper.

The publishing house
is 334 Dearborn St.

Chicago, Ill.; but they inform me that there are none there now; but

all in either my hands
here, or with Rev. C. C.

McLabe, 150 Fifth Ave.
N.Y.

Patristic Pub. Co. is at above 334 Dearborn St.

R. R. McLabe & Co.

I will answer orders "instantly" C. Fairbank.