Abion W. Tourgée, Esq.,

My dear Sir:-

I am arranging to publish early in June, a special 'literary leaves' letter, stating where all our leading authors, editors and educators intend to pass the coming summer season.

May I, therefore, be kindly informed as to where you will sojourn during the Summer and Autumn months, and also whether you will work or rest?

I earnestly hope, Mr. Tourgée, that you will honor me with a few facts regarding your movements during the heated term, which courtesy will be highly appreciated, let me assure you.

With kind regards,

Very & in each yours,

William J. Cook

P. S. Of course, I will NOT print the information you may kindly send me, as if coming directly from you to me -- you can rely on that.

W. J. C.

May I know the name of your state at Mayville.
