Mr. Fowgee - I enclose you slips from the New Orleans Pressure that will explain themselves to you. I hope what use you see fit with them don't bother your self about me.

* It is an unfortunate thing that a person as blessed as to left handed should allow self prejudice to lead them to cultivating the ~~left~~ right hand to the exclusion of the left. Now I being a person I would try to educate both hands alike even as I do now. By nature I am not the least ~~right~~ handed - that is not any more so than people usually are. And with a very little deulling practice I can write at least a legible hand. Miss L. Fowler
